

My Lime Green Story

Who I am.....

(Think beyond your job description... may include your role as a family member, a person with lived experience, or a member of a community.)

What I do.....

(Action words!)

Why I do it

(Who or what inspires you? What do you want to accomplish? What will be different in your home, your community, or your world when you are successful? Make your story “stick”: simple, aspirational, connects to something we all believe in)
